To whom it may concern:

As the I.T. Section Manager of the Libraries of the Health Sciences (Texas Tech University), I am pleased to recommend to you my coworker Tony McCall. I have worked closely with Tony for over two years and I am very impressed with his work.

As the Learning Resource Center lab manager, Tony has managed 60+ desktop computers and peripherals. His work is one of the major factors in the success of the Learning Resource Center. Tony has not only managed the lab, but he has also worked very closely with other teams such as the Reference Librarians to understand and meet our students' needs. He is the inspiration for these teams. Tony was also involved in the development of several I.T. products from scratch, such as a fingerprint-based employee time management solution, as well as a centralized lab management software suite. I would say he has done his job more than wonderfully.

It is really sad for us all to see Tony leave, but we understand and wish him well in any new opportunity. I would wholeheartedly, without any reservation, recommend Tony to you. I am certain he will be a tremendous asset to your company.

Sincerely,
